Length: 1 Semester (10 weeks approx.)

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Do you see the Bible play like a movie in your mind when you listen to sermons? BC Missions is looking to work with videographers who are equally comfortable in front of and behind the camera. The ideal candidate is an experienced servant leader with a heart for storytelling, a wild imagination, and the basic skills needed to edit videos for YouTube. You are a college junior, senior, or grad student. You have intermediate to advanced on camera and video editing skills, and you are seeking to strengthen your resume and skills through real world experience.

Note: This position is for someone who has the mindset to build a video portfolio of client work before taking a video editing, on camera personality, or video marketing position working at a Christian organization.

If you are looking for a part-time job to see if you like video editing or missions work this internship is NOT for you. If you are building up experience to graduate completely qualified for an entry level job, we can help make your resume competitive. Take ownership of projects with the support of a mentor instead of the pressures of a boss.
